

Download Preparing Your House

Some houses sell faster and for more money because of how the home is prepared. A few secrets and some common sense can boost your bottom line. Preparing Your House Get the House Ready A house that “sparkles” on the surface will sell faster than its shabby neighbor, even though both are structurally well-maintained. When preparing your house for sale, breaking the work into decluttering, cleaning and curb appeal will make things easier. Some Highlights: When listing your house for sale, your top goal will be to get the home sold for the best price possible! There are many small projects that you can do to ensure this happens!